DISPATCH OF MARKED BALLOT PAPER BY VOTERS RESIDING ABROAD

All the voters have been provided with stamped envelopes for returning the marked ballot paper to the R.O however if a voter finds that the postal stamp sent is not recognized in the country where they live, they may send their marked ballot paper by the courier service individually and claim reimbursement in their bank account subject to a limit of 400 Indian Rupees. This can also be credited in their IICC account or can be paid to the courier boy on delivery.
